Photos:

Top two are "M Kalashen New Star New York". This looks identical to a Besson and they did have a New Star model so perhaps he copied them. (author's photos)

3rd photo is a miniature cornet (Robb Stewart photo)

4th photo is cornet dated 1910 and is an import from B&F

Bottom trumpet is a Peerless Hand Made model sold by 1914 and probably into the 1930s. They have a 1910 patent which refers to valves by Blessing so possibly made by him. Serial #s 7K to 9K may be a Blessing number. (photos 4-6 Horn-u-copia.net)
