

V. J. LaPage Co.

Buffalo, NY

1930 Victor LaPage, musical inst. repair, Brockport (census).

1935 Victor J. LaPage (1906-1988) is living in Buffalo, NY (census). Address at #38 Allen St (ad below and photo bottom center, middle shop).

1937 Down Beat ad

THE WORLD'S FINEST
TRUMPET AND TROMBONE MUTES
Also TRUMPET $3.00 Trombone $4.50
Try The Silver King Mute You Will Be Surprised
Pat. 22,588
Made in U. S. A.
MR. BRASS MAN
Have you ever used a mute that required no more effort than playing open horn; that didn't make you "lip it up" in the high register; that created an entirely new tone and had such a finished appearance that it looked like part of the horn? The answer is "NO", unless you've tried the new
LA PAGE'S RESONATOR MUTE
Made by
V. J. La PAGE
Try one at your nearest dealer and be convinced.
38 ALLEN ST. BUFFALO, N. Y.

1940 Victor's home in Snyder, NY (suburb of Buffalo), #100 Amherstdale Rd., music dealer & manufacturer of musical instrument accessories, born 1906 in California (census).

1988 Victor dies December 6th (Somerset Cemetery).

La PAGE
TURKISH STYLE
CYMBALS
"The Cymbals That Improve With Age"
Paper Thin—Medium—Heavy

Insist Upon "La Page."
Look for the Name on the Cymbal
Manufactured Under A SECRET PROCESS
U. J. La PAGE
MANUFACTURER
38 Allen St. Buffalo, N. Y.

