

Musketeer

Barth – Feinberg Inc, New York

1923 Barth-Lutchen-Feinberg is founded in New York City as a wholesale musical instrument supplier, distributing imported and domestic band instruments. Started by Albert Barth, Morris Lutchen, and Henry Feinberg, Lutchen passed away in 1927, leaving just B-F.

1930s-40s Musketeer Maestro trumpets have been found that are stencils made by the Cavalier company in Elkhart started by Pan American (Conn) as a student brand.

1941 Barth-Feinberg trademarks the Musketeer name with use starting in 1923 (trademark registration).

Musketeer #46694 c.1940 (auction photos below & top right)

Drum label

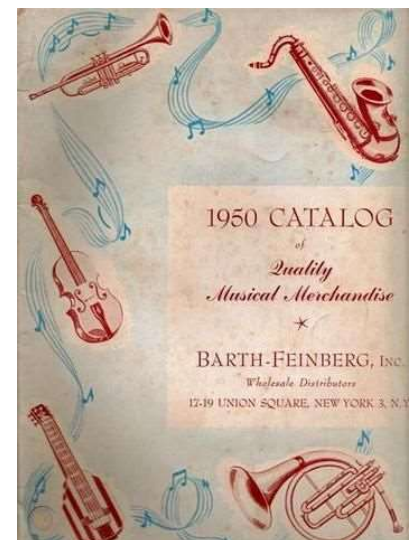

Musketeer Maestro #42959 c.1939 (S. Christensen)

1941 Barth-Feinberg catalog
Musketeer trumpet

These appear to be identical to this Cavalier (auction photo).

Cavalier model 94B #03186 c.1934 (Horn-u-copia.net)

MM #35775 c.1939

Musketeer Maestro #52xxx c.1940 (auction photo)

"Made in Elkhart" #53509 c.1940 (auction photo).

Similar Cavalier 46B design #34518 c.1939 (Horn-u-copia.net).

