

Charles Tuttle

Rome, NY

- 1870 Prof. Charles Tuttle (b.1831) has a music store in Rome, NY and arranged to have a musical convention in that city. He is listed in a directory of music dealers for this year.
- 1876 Publishes monthly music journal, #83 James St (top photo).
- 1877 Tuttle publishes music.
- 1880 Music & book seller, #83 James St (census).
- 1887 "Charles Tuttle, the leading music dealer of Rome, NY, is in town purchasing stock for his Rome & Utica stores."
- 1899 Store now at #147 North James St (bottom photo).
- 1910 Music dealer, #147 N. James St (census).
- 1912 Last published music found.
- 1920 No occupation, #722 N. Washington St (census).
- 1920 Tuttle dies on June 17.

Only one brass cornet found and is likely a European import. Marked "Made For Charles Tuttle 83 James St Rome NY" and probably dates to the 1890s (auction photos).

Rome, N. Y., June 6 1897
Bought of Rev. Jas H. Taylor
CHAS. TUTTLE,
Wholesale and Retail Dealer in
PIANOS, ORGANS, MUSICAL MERCHANDISE,
Sewing Machines, Bicycles,
Paper, Envelopes, Etc.,
147 N. JAMES STREET.